Oswald Miller

STRASBURG- Oswald "Ozzie" Raymond Miller, 78, Strasburg, died March 8, 2006, at his home. Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, March 11, at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Strasburg, with the Rev. Leonard Eckroth officiating. Interment will be in Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Cemetery.

There will be a rosary at 5 p.m. Friday, March 10, at the church in Strasburg.

Oswald Raymond Miller was born in Strasburg, the son of Peter P. and Mary (Baumgartner) Miller on Sept. 17, 1927. He attended Strasburg Public School and graduated from the Strasburg High School in 1945. Ozzie served in the U.S. Coast Guard on the East Coast. He married Delores Wolf on July 13, 1951, at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Strasburg. Following their marriage, they lived in Strasburg where Ozzie worked for his father as a bulk truck driver. He later took over the bulk business and went on to develop Miller Insurance and Tax Service. He was in the business for over 40 years. Ozzie was a member of the Strasburg Lions Club and served as Emmons County Commissioner for 20 years. He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren, watching and attending horseracing, reading, and investing in the stock market.

Grateful to have shared his life are his wife, Delores; one son and daughter-in-law, Jay and Joni Miller, Strasburg; three daughters and two sons-in-law, Mary Kay and Pat Feist, Minnewaukan, Cheryl and Rob Kelley, Scottsdale, Ariz., and Eva Miller, Edinburg, Texas; seven grandchildren, Amber Feist, Matt Miller, Aaron Miller, Ryan Miller, Lauren Kelley, Caroline Kelley and Adam Krone; and two brothers and one sister-in-law, Harold and Carole Miller, Bismarck, and Michael Miller, Fargo.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one grandson, Cody Feist; one brother, Donald; and two sisters, Ramona Becker and Pearl Miller.
