

Posted on Sun, Nov. 02, 2003

GrandForksHerald.com

Duane N. Renville

Duane N. Renville age 78 of Walhalla, ND., died on Thursday, October 30, 2003, at his home.

A memorial mass will be held on Tuesday, November 4, 2003, at 10:00 a.m. at the St. Boniface Catholic Church, Walhalla, ND. Burial in the St. Boniface Cemetery, Walhalla, ND. Arrangements with Nelson-Askew Funeral Home, Walhalla, ND.

Duane N. Renville was born October 15, 1925, at Walhalla, ND., the son of Joseph and Georgianna (Melhus) Renville. He grew up and attended school in Walhalla. From 1942 to 1962 he served in the U.S. Navy. While on the seas he served on a destroyer and PT boat. After his discharge from the service he worked for the U.S. Postal Service in Concord, CA. He then worked for the U.S. Geological Service where he worked in Antarctica. Duane then retired in Mexico and Walhalla.

He is survived by his siblings, Jack (Delores) Renville, Roseville, CA., Lowen Renville, Placerville, CA., Jerry (Toshiko) Renville, Roseville, CA., Fred (Rosemary) Renville, Las Vegas, NV., Curt (Lil) Renville, Placerville, CA., Jeanne (Edward) Wood, Modesto, CA., Karen (Dave) Gottwalt, Chaska, MN., and Tim Renville, Las Vegas, NV.

Duane was preceded in death by his parents, and brothers, Joseph and Ronald.

Military Rites by Barlette-Resler Post #62 - Walhalla American Legion.

Celebrant: Rev. Fr. Brian Bachmeier.

Honorary Pallbearers: Morris Gratton, Pat Hardy, Rodney Huffman, John McLean, and Jack Soeby.