

Regarda Senger

Feb. 20, 1919-July 13, 2007

Regarda (Lacher) Senger, the daughter of Kasper and Ursala (Volk) Lacher, was born February 20, 1919 in Orrin, ND. She died at the age of 88 years on Friday, July 13, 2007, at the Lakota Good Samaritan Center in Lakota.

Regarda was raised in the rural home of her parents in the Orrin area. She attended St. Mary's Academy in Devils Lake and graduated from Rugby High School. Following her high school, Regarda continued her education receiving a Teacher's Certificate from Minot State Teacher's College in Minot, ND. She taught school for 34 years in the McHenry and Pierce County school districts. On August 22, 1945, Regarda was united in marriage to Anton Senger in Orrin. The couple made their home in the Orrin area until Regarda retired in 1977 and then moved to Bismarck. In 1998 the couple moved to Minot, where they resided until 2005. They then moved to the Prairie Rose Senior Apartments in Lakota.

Regarda was an active member of the Christian Mothers of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, the Teacher's Retirement Association and Minot State University Alumni Association. She enjoyed crocheting, gardening and scouring the newspapers to read about the accomplishments of her many former students.

Survivors include her husband, Anton, of Lakota; a son, Arnold and his wife, Lois of Raymond, MS; two daughters, Cleopatra and her husband, Ken Pederson of Michigan, ND, and Patricia and her husband, Jerry Giesinger of Collierville, TN; eight grandchildren, Polly (Lariccia), Sharon (Estess), and Anton Senger, Susan (Brandjord), and Nicole (Schmidt) Pederson, Becky (Lee), Brian, and Brad Giesinger; nine great-grandchildren; three step great-grandchildren; a sister, Catherine (Lacher) Saupé of Madison, MS.

She was preceded in death by an infant daughter, Geraldine; five brothers, Nick, Leo, John, Casper, and Bert Lacher; three sisters, Tillie (Leier), Walburga (Voller), and Margaret (Fettig) Lacher.
